BLING MAKES EVERYTHING BETTER

My
BLING AND BOND®

Bling Makes Everything Better

In day-to-day life, as women, there are a variety of responsibilities that demand our devotion and our time. We are constantly running from job to job, from home to work and now-a-days from home to work at home (LOL).

We work ourselves nearly to the point of exhaustion and give ourselves to everything and everyone. We wear so many hats daily and forget about the person they adorn. We rarely take the necessary time to reflect upon what weeeee need let alone actually make time for ourselves. (Did you read "weeeee" with the same exhausting exhale in which I wrote it? ... whew girl!!)

Listen, we are pulled in so many directions that, at times, we don't know if we're coming or going. Everybody... I mean everybody needs something from us...

- Our spouses need our attention.
- Our children need help with their homework.
- Our girlfriends need relationship advice.
- Our parents need special care.
- Our jobs need us to be focused.
- Our churches and organizations need volunteers.
- Our extended family need us to be present.

Shoot.... even our fur babies have demands that must be met... vet appointments, monthly grooming (or daily if she's anything like my dog), walks and cuddle time. (LOL ... I just had a "color purple" moment... "my boys want supper... the kitchen needs cleaning... the cows need milking"... LOL) SMH.

Our commitments can become taxing without an escape; without time to decompress. We have to find time to relax, refresh and regroup.

BUT HOW... HMMM?

How do we get better at scheduling "me" days when the babies are crying for mommy?

How do we get better at saving money when we barely have enough left at the end of the month?

How do we plan better vacations when we're working 2-1/2 jobs to make ends meet?

How can we do better supporting the various ministries and charities that we've made financial commitments to?

How do we get better at taking time out for ourselves when the "boo thang" needs our attention?

How can we get better at managing our time when we're juggling and trying to balance relationships with friends?

How can we do better releasing the pressure in every area of our lives?

Answer:

BLING MAKES EVERYTHING BETTER!!

Stop laughing... and don't roll your eyes. This is serious!!

We have so much going on in our lives that, even when we are working on one thing, our mind is busy trying to figure out how to handle twenty other tasks. We are master multi-taskers but we have to find a way to focus on less at a time so that we can master all tasks.

It's said that "you can do anything if you focus on one thing at a time". Now, of course, they did not have bling in mind... but the principle remains the same. Blinging causes one to focus on the task at hand and creates a mental space of peace and relaxation... a way of escape... the therapeutic sigh after a pressure filled inhale... and in that quiet space thoughts can be processed clearly. In that place of calm... answers to questions can be heard.

Who knew that something as small and insignificant as a 2mm rhinestone would have the ability to create a quiet zone that could potentially change the trajectory of your life and pave the way to reposition you mentally and financially?

How does "bling" make you feel?

So how, you ask, can YOU use bling to change YOUR life for the better?

You can use bling to...

- clear your mind
- relieve anxiety
- increase the quality time you spend with your family
- increase your family vacations
- increase your ability to care for your extended family
- have more freedom to work on your goals and dreams

All while earning money so that you have the ability to...

- meet monthly financial goals
- eliminate the need for a 2nd & 3rd job
- work from the comfort of your own home
- give charitably to non-profit organizations
- create savings and trust funds for generational wealth
- splurge (when you want) without guilt

Let's dig a little deeper and establish your "why".

Establish Your Why

WE MUST NEVER FORGET OUR

WHY

IT IS THE SOURCE

OF OUR

FULLFILLMENT

Establish Your Why

As with any new or modified endeavor there will be many ups, downs and turns on the road to what you define as success. Success is a very personal journey and although the road is the same, everyone's trip will be different depending on the destination.

Every lane is not for everyone and neither is every exit. Speed varies based on prior experience or how quickly you learn a lesson. Your journey is personal... not competitive. Never compare your beginning to someone else's current situation. There's a process that must be followed. Trust it! Trust the journey.

We talked about how bling can change your life but in order for YOU to reach YOUR destination you must decide where you want to end up even before you begin the journey. What does success look like to you? Again... success is personal. How will you handle course corrections that need to be made along the way?

Before we get into 'how to secure the bag', let's take a moment to answer a few questions that will help you as you move forward.

Feel free to print a copy, use a separate notebook or write on the lines using your electronic pencil.

Why are you looking to create an additional income stream?

Why is making more money important to you?

What is your monthly financial goal?

What type of things will you be able to take care of once you meet your monthly goals?

What pressures would you be relieved from if you could make more money each month?

What generational curses can be broken for your children and grandchildren with the ability to set up financial accounts for them?

What freedoms can you see yourself having if financial pressures were relieved and what would you do with that new found freedom?

Is getting a part-time job or a 2nd full-time job a feasible solution for your current situation or for what you'd like to accomplish in the future?

What amount of money per month is enough?

How many hours would you have to work (at your current rate) to take home that amount?

How many hours would you have to work (at your current rate) to take make $1000.00?

How would additional income change the lives of your family?

What would you do if you had more time to spend with your family?

What type of vacations would you plan if you had the time and the finances to go?

If you had the opportunity to turn a part-time hobby into a full time career, making the amount of money you want to make, would you take it? Why?

Now...

Imagine paying your bills at the beginning of the month with money left over to do whatever you want...

Imagine being in control of the physical time you spend working...

Imagine not having to miss family events because of work obligations...

Imagine catching flights wherever and whenever you wanted to take a trip...

Imagine gaining financial freedom while meeting new people and doing what brings you joy...

Can you see that for yourself?

I SEE IT FOR YOU!

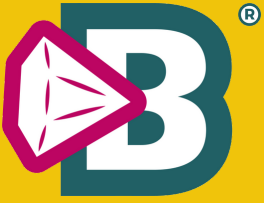

The sole purpose of this exercise was for you to...

1. create a visual image of how you see your future freedoms.
2. have celebratory benchmarks as you accomplish each one!
3. always remember your why!

As a part of The Bling Squad, we work together to strategically map out your success plan so that you can reach your goals, reach them within your specified time frame and position yourself to exceed those goals.

If you've never attended a live or virtual session I'm sure by now you've asked the question... "What in the heck is Bling and Bond®?" ...LOL.

Bling and Bond® is a group activity created to provide lovers of BLING a fun and exciting way to take a break from the responsibilities that demand their devotion and time.

We coordinate and facilitate "bling parties" with hosts and their guests, as they relax and enjoy one another, all while creating fabulous, blingy works of art. Parties are hosted both in person and virtually.

Party participants choose from a variety of images and colors to "bling out" during the event. Bling and Bond® is perfect for a girls' night out, ministry fellowship event, a fundraiser, a birthday party or NO occasion at all.

BLING AND BOND®

What Is [MY] Bling and Bond®

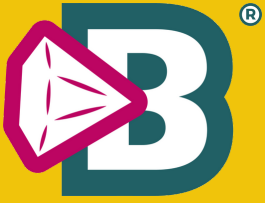

[MY] Bling and Bond® is an extension of the Bling and Bond® brand. It was created to provide a space for individuals, such as yourself, to gain financial freedom. By becoming a part of the Bling and Bond® family, you will not only have the opportunity to take charge of your income, you will become an integral part of a movement like none other.

People do not realize the time, attention to detail and careful strategic planning that goes into nurturing an idea from concept to reality. With the council of a close-knit circle, we have done all the hard work for you. We have an entire team of consultants, strategists and suppliers that are very crucial in building this unique business archetype.

We are not interested in the typical business model. We are not interested in massing employees. We are not interested in “getting rich” while those who help build the company live from check to check.

We want to create an opportunity for individuals to partner with our brand, increase the momentum of exposure and brand awareness while also allowing them, as a member of the Bling Squad, to establish their own goals for financial success.

This workbook has been designed to help you map out your success plan BEFORE you say yes to joining the Bling Squad. We want you to see in great detail the benefits of becoming a part of the Bling and Bond® family and just how easy it will be to increase your monthly income and more importantly, create the life that you envision for your family.

Securing The Bag

THE IS IN THE BLING!

5 WAYS TO SECURE THE BAG ... EVEN IF YOU DON'T KNOW A LOT OF PEOPLE

The Bag is in the Bling... that's what we said right? We can hear you asking,

- "Well how exactly do I "secure the bag"?...
- How do I get to where the money resi... ah um... to where the money is? (move along... no copyright infringement here...LOL!)
- How do I "secure the bag" when I don't know a lot of people?
- How do I gain exposure so that I am successful in this endeavor?"

HOW?

Listen... when the idea of Bling and Bond® was birthed, a list of names... names of women in our circle was made. These were women that we knew would support our 'test event'.

They had sooo much fun that afterwards, they shared pictures of their projects on social media, told their friends, family and co-workers about the session and just like that... the requests began coming in.

On the following pages are the 5 ways (or groups) we connected with to broaden the exposure of the brand and to book more parties. Following these suggestions will definitely increase your opportunities to book bling parties as well.

YOUR INNER CIRCLE

Instead of looking for individuals to host parties... start by hosting your own.

Go through your contacts and list the names of individuals that you can invite to your event and create a memorable experience with them. You can invite...

- * Sister(s)
- * Niece(s)
- * Best Friend
- * Cousin(s)
- * Mother
- * Neighbor(s)
- * Auntie(s)
- * In-Laws

...and ask them to bring a guest as well. Remember... this can be a virtual party so there's no need to have everyone over unless that is your preference.

YOUR CO-WORKERS

Regardless of the field you are working in... everyone is in need of some relaxation time.

You could easily schedule a virtual party with 10 of your co-workers.

If you don't have 10 individuals that you work with directly, ask those that you do to invite 2-3 individuals to bling with them.

YOUR CHURCH FAMILY

A bling party could be used as a ministry fellowship event, a fundraiser or even as a tool of evangelism.

If your ministry has multiple campuses, online members or members who are physically unable to attend events there is an option to party virtually.

IN THE AREA BELOW, LIST THE NAMES OF PEOPLE YOU SERVE IN MINISTRY WITH OR TEAM LEADERS WHO MAY WANT TO DO A MINISTRY FELLOWSHIP.

FACTS OVER FEAR

I've tried multi-level marketing in the past and never made any money.

Bling and Bond® is not a multi-level marketing opportunity. There are no tiers.

Can I really create an additional stream of income?

Absolutely! Each party can produce a minimum of $150.

What if I have a full time job, can I still do this?

YES. Most events are only 2-3 hours and you create your own schedule.

Can I really make money from home?

Yes. Bling and Bond® parties can be hosted on-line.

I'm not tech savvy. Would I be able to host on-line parties?

Yes. Hands on training will be provided and Squad assistance is always available prior to and during online sessions.

I'm not trying to make kits and ship them out. Is this my responsibility?

No. Kits are 'made to order' and shipped directly from the home office by the production team.

I don't know a lot of people. Will I still be able to make money?

Yes. You will be provided with tools and strategies to help you increase your visibility.

6 REASONS WHY THE BLING SQUAD IS FOR YOU!

[My] Bling and Bond® is a great way to add an additional income stream for you personally or as a new service offered by your business. Rather you make $250 a month or $2,500... joining the Bling Squad and becoming a Bling and Bond Event Specialist will help you meet your monthly financial goals and assist you as you create the life you want for you and your family.

In addition to everything else you've already read (LOL), here are 6 more reasons the Bling Squad is for you...

1. Additional Income Stream

Obviously, the initial benefit would be the ability to add more money to your monthly financial strategies which will help you afford expenses, luxuries, investments and additional savings.

2. You Plan Your Income

When you are working a typical job, in many cases you can't make more money by simply working more hours especially if you're working within a set salary or a standard maximum hours cap. As an Event Specialist, you'll have the ability to forecast and plan your monthly income to meet any financial goals that you have established for yourself.

3. You Create Your Own Schedule

You know best just how many roles you are juggling as you balance family, work, ministry, self-care and possibly being an entrepreneur as well. No one intrudes on your personal time or the time you've specifically designated for other things. You are in complete control of your party schedule. You establish your party hours and communicate directly with your hosts regarding requested time slots.

4. You'll have consistent support system.

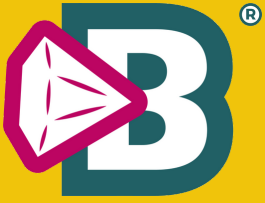

The foundation has been established for you to build upon and you have access to the Bling and Bond network to grow and become as successful as you desire. Weekly tips, trainings, group sessions and 1-on-1s are at your disposal to assist you as you build YOUR Bling and Bond. You'll also have access to marketing graphics and our private Facebook community for support from other specialists across the US.

5. It is YOUR business

Whether you're an individual operating as an independent contractor or a new / existing business offering Bling and Bond services to your clients, you'll be the SHE-E-O of your business. As an independent contractor you will receive a 1099 at the end of each year and have the ability to deduct any eligible expenses incurred as you operate your bling business.

6. You'll love it!

Clearly, you have a passion for Bling... after all, that's what initially caught your attention. You may have hosted a party, been a guest, saw a social media post or a marketing ad. Becoming an Event specialists is definitely a win-win for you as your passion will fund your finances.

Behind the Brand

Behind the Brand

I'm so excited that you decided to download "The Bag is in the Bling": How to earn an extra $1000 per month booking group bling parties.

In 2017, I came up with the concept of Bling and Bond® while designing a few art pieces for my home. As I was working, I thought "this would be a great group event to offer ladies who love bling. Guests could come together, spend time with one another, celebrate milestones, create new memories and BLIIING!!!!." (Yes, I said all of that in my head... don't judge me!)

I sent a few text messages out and within 7 days I had an entire event planned. Venue... check! Menu... check! Supplies... decor... photography team... check! Check! And check!

30 wonderful ladies agreed to attend the "test session". The feedback was absolutely amazing! I was literally in tears. I mean I was genuinely floooooored by the response to the concept.

Yatarra Talise, Creative Lead

Before any type of marketing campaign could be planned and prior to the website being designed, calls, texts, emails and inboxes began pouring in simply by word of mouth.

Year one was an exciting, scary, fulfilling, challenging, beautiful, chaotic world wind of planning and partying. 😊

What I thought would be a simple, fun, crafty, blingy party option, turned out to be the beginning of a movement much larger than I ever anticipated or even imagined.

While facilitating the bling parties I've had the opportunity to meet and fellowship with some amazing women along with their friends, loved ones, coworkers etc. The “bonding” aspect of the parties were unexpectedly and literally life-changing conversations! Being privy to those conversations revealed that there was a common thread within the discussions regardless of the age group of the guests.

If I had to sum it up into one word, that word would be... more!

We... as women... need... more!!!

- More time to do the things we love
- More time to spend with our families
- More time to hang with our girlfriends
- More time to create memories with our children
- More time to be “off the clock”
- More time to develop our businesses
- More time to go back to school
- More time to study for the classes we’re currently in
- More time to travel
- More time to cultivate personal relationships
- More time to be a care-giver
- More time to perfect our craft
- More time to partake in self care activities
- More time to do absolutely nothing at all

And subsequently...

- More money to afford the ability to do all of the above

By creating Bling and Bond®, I’ve been able to add an income stream for my personal “more time to”s and after listening to years of these types of conversations, I began to ask my self, “How can I expand my business so that other woman can begin to fulfill their dreams as well?”

Answer:

Create an investment package so that others can facilitate Bling and Bond® parties.

So here we are...

It is my desire that you partner with Bling and Bond® to create the life you've always dreamed of.

Let us assist you in creating more time to do the things you've been wanting to do.
